

About Our Presenters 2009 Family Business Conference

Clay Dibrell is an Associate Professor of Entrepreneurship and Strategy in the College of Business at Oregon State University, a research fellow with the Australian Centre for Family Business at Bond University, and a US Fulbright Scholar. He has taught strategic management, international business, and entrepreneurship courses at the undergraduate, MBA, and EMBA levels throughout the world. Areas of research interest include management of family and non-family firms in relation to innovation, stewardship, branding, and natural environmental sustainability.

Dr. Greg McCann, a leading expert in the field of family business, is an author; consultant and speaker, specializing in helping the next generation succeed in both their careers and their lives. He recently authored When Your Parents Sign the Paychecks, used as a college text around the country. Dr. McCann is a graduate of Stetson University (B.A.) and the University of Florida, College of Law (J.D.). As founder and director of the Family Enterprise Center at Stetson, where he currently serves as a tenured full professor of business law and family business, McCann led the effort to develop the nation's second minor and first undergraduate major degree in Family Business. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Family Firm Institute and was acknowledged for a lifetime of achievement in family enterprise education.

Tom Pruner, Jr. has more than 27 years tax experience with an emphasis on providing trust and estate income taxation, estate and gift taxation and retirement plan services. He received his Bachelor of Science, Accounting from the University of South Dakota and is a graduate of the College for Financial Planning. Tom holds accreditation as a Certified Public Accountant, a Personal Financial Specialist and a Certified Financial Planner.

Mary T. Guth is a Licensed Marriage Family Therapist and Licensed Professional Counselor in Mental Health. She has worked in the mental health field in Sioux Falls SD for 16 years, and is an Outpatient Therapist with Avera McKennan Behavioral Health Services. She presently serves on the South Dakota Board of Examiners for Counselors and Marriage and Family Therapists and is President of the South Dakota Association of Marriage and Family Therapists. She has a Masters of Science in Counseling and Human Development from South Dakota State University.

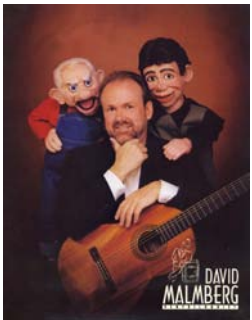

Terry Saber has more than 25 years of experience in the areas of strategic planning, human capital, executive compensation, and executive coaching with family-owned and publicly traded financial institutions; associations; and nonprofit organizations. Terry holds a Bachelor of Science degree with triple majors in Speech, English, and Education from Minnesota State University. She has held national certification as a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) and is a graduate of the BMA Graduate School of Marketing Management and Strategic Planning at the University of Georgia, Athens. Terry has completed the Negotiation and Conflict Resolution Executive Development program at Harvard University in Cambridge and is a recently certified Master Coach with the Behavioral Coaching Institute in Melbourne, Australia.

Michelle van Schouwen acts as a key marketing resource for many van Schouwen Associates clients, and is integrally involved in the strategic direction and execution of client programs. Michelle has 25 years of experience in both the marketing and strategic development arenas. Her experience includes extensive work in financial services marketing, manufacturing, retail, and high tech for national, international and regional clients. Prior to joining the agency in 1985, Michelle was associate director of marketing for MassMutual, and principal writer and editor for Coleco, serving its advanced research and development division.

Catherine Tanck is an attorney with Davenport, Evans, Hurwitz & Smith, LLP. As both a lawyer and CPA, Cathy's law practice involves business and succession planning, real estate business transactions, like-kind exchanges, income and estate tax planning and dispute representation, and the formation, merger and dissolution of corporations, limited liability companies and similar entities. Her education includes a Bachelor of Arts in Accounting and Economics from Augustana College and she received her J.D. degree from the University of South Dakota.

Throughout David Malmberg's show, voices and sounds seem to be coming from everywhere, except the stage! The phone rings, voices echo, and suitcases talk. David brings with him lovable Simon and America's grouchiest farmer, Leonard Cribble. Simon thinks it's his job to disrupt every serious moment on stage while Leonard loves to sing, joke, and flirt with the audience as he helps provides one sizzling laugh after another. David has shared the stage with many top acts including Mary Chapin Carpenter, Merle Haggard and the Statler Brother's.