"The retreat helped us by providing a way to handle conflicts among family members, it also gave us helpful information to strengthen the Family Business and the FAMILY." Past Participant

Prairie Family Business Retreat
Winter 2008

Benefits of Attending a Retreat:

- Map out long and short term goals and develop a strategy to accomplish those goals.
- Strengthen family ties by building trust and creating clarity of vision for both family and business.
- Integrate the personal and professional goals of each family member to the family's strategic vision.
- Optimize both business performance and family relationships.
- Opportunity to network and interact with other families in business.
- Establish groundwork for ongoing dialogue so that when difficult issues arise, the family has a framework to act on the issues.
- Provide a template for holding your own family business retreat.

"It provided the format that our family needed to discuss critical issues."
